The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday August 30, to Saturday September 3, 1748.

Naples, August 13, N. S.

A Few Days since the King's Gallies seized, on the Coast of Sicily, a Pyrate Barbary Boat, with about forty Men on board, which had greatly infested those Coasts. Last Week the Squadron of Maltese Gallies anchored a second Time at Gaeta, and two of them were detached to Baja, to take on board an hundred Criminals condemned to the Gallies for Life, of whom the King has made a Present to the Grand Master of Malta.

Rome, Aug. 17, N. S. Cardinal Paolucci has resigned into the Hands of the Pope his Government of the Legation of Ferrara, which has been given to Cardinal Barni. The Pope has order'd 500 Crowns to be given to Prince Rospiglioſi to be shared amongst the People of Maccarese, his Fief, who secured the Crew of a Barbary Pyrate Row-Boat which was lately wrecked upon that Coast.

Florence, Aug. 20, N. S. On the 9th M. La Motta, late Chaplain to the two Companies of the Emperor's Horse Life-Guards, took Possession of a vacant Canonship in the Cathedral Church of Florence, lately conferr'd upon him by the Emperor, who has likewise granted him a Pension of 1800 Livres per Annum. Last Week the Regency caused an Edict to be published, forbidding, under severe Penalties, the bringing into Tuscany any Cattle from the Ecclesiastical State and Lombardy, on Account of the Sickness which rages there. Letters by the last Mail from Lombardy mention, that a Body of 4000 Waraſdins began their March last Week on their Return home, and were to be follow'd by several Austrian Regiments to Germany. The Austrians have cut down and disposed of the Woods of Colorno, and those of the Neighbouring Hills in the Parmesan. They also remove what Forage they can collect to Mantua, and exact extraordinary Contributions. The Sardinian Troops act in the like Manner at Placentia, and have raised a Contribution of 150,000 Florins in the Dutchy of Modena.

Hague, Sept. 10, N. S. The Prince of Orange is still at Amsterdam, but is expected back in a Day or two. His Highness deposed on Friday last the four reigning Burgomasters, viz. Messr. Gerrit Corver, John Six, John Sautin, and Peter Vande Poll; and named in their Stead, Messr. Ferdinand Van Collen, Cornelius Trip, William Gideon Deutz, and Gerard Arnold Hasselaer. Besides this, the Prince dismissed the next Day the whole Body of the Vroedschap, or Town Council, and appointed a new one, composed of nineteen Members of the old Vroedschap, who have been restored, and seventeen other new Members. The Princess Dowager of Orange is expected here from Leeuwarden in a Day or two.
